UN Asks Troops For Korean War

Urgent Appeal Is Made For Ground Force Help

LAKE SUCCESSE, July 14.—(AP)—Secretary-general Trygve Lie urgently appealed today to 52 United Nations members for ground forces and other assistance for the UN Korean war effort.

Lie told a press conference the unified command under the United States is in urgent need of additional effective assistance.

He despatched telegrams to all UN countries backing the Security Council action against Communist North Korea (which includes Canada), telling them he would be grateful for them to consider the possibility of such assistance, "including combat forces, particularly ground forces."

Lie said these forces should be "effective forces" and not "token."

He expressed hope it will not take more than three to six months and the war in Korea, said, is in a state of stalemate.

Lie made no comment when asked for the UN's attitude on possible use of atomic bombs.

There are 59 U.N. members. Those not receiving the telegram were the United States, which is carrying the burden of fighting the Soviet, Bloc and Yugoslavia. The Russian Bloc and Yugoslavia opposed the Security Council action.

Violent fighting was raging at midnight along the Kum in the Tadjik section, U.S. advanced headquarters in Korea reported. The North Korean forces poured down out of the hills behind the Kum river valley and struck "a large force" at the American left flank northwest of Taesong.

YANKS OUTNUMBERED

The break through forced another series of withdrawals by the American forces, United Press correspondent. Butcher's Point reported from Korean headquarters. He said the American forces outnumbered four to one.

The South Korean government already had pulled out most of its sections from Taesong, the emergency capital to which it fled from Seoul, and gone on further south.

Reports from the battlefield at first said the hard fighting American forces were holding the raiders in check after the Kum river was forced in the face of a point-blank American artillery barrage.

But later dispatches admitted that heavy fighting was in progress on the south bank.

INFILTRATED RANKS

The North Koreans attacked after several days of infiltration in civilian clothes under cover of darkness. The Kum was low and sluggish, and could be forded at some places in the U.S. sector.

Plato reported that another Communist staff across the river was expected on the right flank of the Americans to the east of Taesong where the U.S. and South Korean sectors join.

Heavy artillery duels across the river went on during the night.

The field news American and Mr. Lie had not yet reached the Canadian government.

Australia Takes 2-Up Lead Over Canada In Tennis Play

MONTREAL, July 14.—Curly-haired Ken McGregor and hard-hitting Frank Sedgman combined today to give Australia a two-match lead in the Canada-Australia Davis Cup tie at Mount Royal tennis club.

McGregor downed stylish Lorne Macken of Vancouver 6-1, 6-2, 7-5 in the second singles match of the North American zone tie. Sedgman showed beautiful court superiority in doubling Brendan Macken of Montreal 7-5, 6-2, 6-1.

Sedgman, who defeated Macken in three sets in last year's tie, had more trouble with the 27-year-old Montrealler this time although the Canadian's service appeared weaker.

The 22-year-old Australian star was at near perfection with his cannonball serve and blistering overhead smashes as he won the first match of five in the North American zone tie.

McGregor gave his best display in the opening set when he pestered the Australian with brilliant placements and a cannonball service, but it wasn't enough for the Canadian. Sedgman, Australia's No. 1 singles player, took it in a walk away in the second and third sets with his hard overhead smashes and won the set 7-5.

KOREAN BRIEFS

Gen. M'Arthur Accepts Flag Of United Nations

TOKYO (AP)—Gen. MacArthur today accepted the flag of the United Nations as the symbol of the Korean war must be won for the Korean war as well as U.S. commander-in-chief and chief of the allied occupation of Japan.

WASHINGTON (UP)—The United States "rock bottom" terms for settling the Korean war are "a cease fire and a return to the 38th parallel" the state department said today.

Department press officer Lincoln White made the statement in response to questions on this government's attitude toward efforts of Britain and India to seek a peaceful solution of the Korean war with Moscow.

White emphasized the American position is that any solution of the Korean war must be worked out within the framework of the United Nations resolutions on Korea.

LONDON (AP)—Gen. MacArthur today said the United States would support the same phrase today as the state department said today.

There were, however, some doubts and some criticism. In Norway and Finland, both neighbors of Russia, the man in the street wondered out loud whether the needed reinforcement of men and material would be too little and too late. Some Finns found the state of U.S. preparedness in the Pacific a challenge to their own. They were impressed with the apparent military ability of the North Koreans.

ROME (AP)—Almost the only sharp non-Communist criticism of the U.S. Korean effort came from the moderate, pro-government Il Momento.

"The fact alone that America has to half submit to oppose a semi-barbarian state, a country that is the last (least) powerful of the Soviet bloc, will mean for America a loss of prestige which a late and painfully-secured victory will not be able to regain," it wrote.

MOSCOW (UP)—Russia's willingness to discuss the Korean war with the U.S. was...

Expert Considers Korean War End If And When Tide Turns, 38th Parallel Is Objective

By Harry Ferguson
United Press Foreign News Editor

With things going the way they are in Korea this is an odd time to be talking about what we are going to do when the Communists are licked.

But as American spokesmen at the headquarters in Korea have come up with some words that place a tough problem on the doorstep of the United Nations and the U.S. state department.

It is that if and when the tide of battle turns and we start to advance instead of retreat, we must advance to the 38th parallel—the invisible line that divides Communist and non-Communist Korea. Furthermore, he said: "We will also prevent the South Koreans from crossing the parallel."

DOESN'T MAKE SENSE
To a lot of people that doesn't make much sense. One of them is Kim Yong Joo, chief of the South Korean diplomatic mission to Japan.

There is no sense in just occupying South Korea, including Seoul, he told the United Press. "Because there would be no guarantee that this same thing would not happen again. We should go all the way back to the Manchurian border. Then there would be a real Republic of Korea. The nation would be preserved in its entirety."

What he means is that if we do not chase the Communists all the way through North Korea they will take refuge behind the 38th parallel and start making plans for another invasion of South Korea.

Privately, the U.S. state department hopes that the problem of creating or not creating the 38th parallel never will be discussed.

DIPLOMATIC STANDPOINT
The ideal solution for us, from a diplomatic standpoint, would be for our troops to encircle the Communist armies and then move up before they could retreat to the 38th parallel. That would leave North Korea defenceless and unable to wage war again for a long time.

Somebody is going to ask if we

Man Killed By Gas Explosion
SEATTLE, July 14 (AP)—At least one man was killed and eight others injured today when an underground explosion ripped out 80 feet of sidewalk and partially demolished a three-story building.

Police Chief George B. Eastman said the fire originated in the city's gas mains which underline the street and appeared to be the source of the blast.

The victim, Neil J. Boles, 38, of West, Wash., was found on a second floor fire escape across the street.

Harry Jordan of radio station KING, a witness to the explosion, said he saw holes blown across the street.

One large section of wall fell from the building in Seattle's lower south end. Windows were shattered in buildings a block away. Glass and debris littered the street.

PUBLIC NOTICE
ANNUAL CIVIC HOLIDAY

MONDAY, the 7th day of August, 1960, has been proclaimed as the ANNUAL CIVIC HOLIDAY for the year 1960 in the City of Edmonton, and throughout that day all Civic Offices will be closed. The attention of employees is drawn to the fact that the Edmonton Charter this holiday is not legally binding with respect to factories or industrial establishments referred to in the Factories Act, but applies only to premises where in or where any retail trade or business is carried on.

Dated at Edmonton, Alberta, this 14th day of July, 1960.
S. PARSONS, MAYOR.

These offices are 44 and 73 miles north of Taejon and about 80 miles north of Pusan on the highway from Pusan to the front. Han-cho is only 22 miles north of Kumchong, another road point.

A spokesman at advanced U.S. headquarters said, however, that the South Korean army had generally stabilized the eastern sector of the front. It apparently was based on information later this that in the communists.

Allied planes kept up their constant harassment of forward ground forces back of the front Thursday. A few east air force communications listed nine enemy tanks destroyed, 12 damaged, 45 trucks destroyed and 15 damaged.

The North Korean radio broadcast that Thursday's heavy B-29 strike hit Wusan, eastern airport 80 miles north of the 38th parallel. Nearly 30 Superfortresses bombed the target by radar.

Kellogg's CORN FLAKES
THE ORIGINAL VALUE

When the big push across the river comes, the Communists will have to attempt it without their 1st division, which headed the long drive of more than 130 miles from the North Korean border to the Kum.

Gen. MacArthur's communiques said the 1st division, described as North Korea's finest, was so badly mauled by U.S. group troops and air blows that it had been replaced by the 4th division.

The communists still showed concern over the sweeping eastward movement by two 1st divisions. They threaten to cut off the Kum and Taejon from supplies coming up from Pusan, southeast port.

It said the Reds still were driving toward Hamchang and Andong, aren't committing aggression everywhere we send a Super-Force winging across the 38th parallel to bomb the Communists on their home grounds.

Vice Regal Party Here August 15

No formal functions are being arranged by city officials for Lord and Lady Alexander's brief visit to Edmonton, August 15.

The vice-regal pair will arrive by train from Jasper at 8:30 p.m. on August 13, and leave by air for Ottawa at 1 a.m. the following day.

Deputy Mayor Ed Bowcott said today that an official party will meet them at the train, but that no social engagements are planned.

Lady Alexander will return to Edmonton on August 21, 13, but no plans have yet been laid for official functions, Mr. Bowcott said.

Police had to arrest two men to get out last night.

Acting on information from Leithbridge police that a man wanted by them would be visiting a telegraph office here they went to the place and found two men.

One was Arthur Tourangeau, wanted man, and the other a William Brown of Sundre, Alta., but they couldn't find out which was which as the two were vague and disconcerting in answering questions.

Therefore they arrested both on charges of vagrancy.

The mystery was solved this morning in police court when Tourangeau and Brown answered to their names. Charges were then withdrawn. Tourangeau is being returned to Leithbridge.

Things will brighten up considerably at Edmonton Exhibition at 10 p.m. Monday and Saturday.

On those nights the public will be treated to a 15-minute spectacle of acrobatics in 200 fireworks set skyward.

The aerial displays by T. W. Hand Fireworks company, Coakville, Ont., will be directed by W. R. Hand, sales manager and vice-president.

Fireworks will rise 500 feet into the air and will be seen from all over the Exhibition grounds.

Magnesium projectiles will be shot 100 feet into the darkness with an intensity that will make light changing p.m. into a.m.

Fine of $200 or three months' imprisonment was levied on Mike Givhuin today in police court for possession of liquor.

Givhuin, Raymond Byrne, No. 2 Corners Road, and Roger Leppine were charged with making the illegal sale early this morning.

Byrne and Leppine were released on $100 bail until July 20 for trial.

Edmonton taxpayers have until Monday to pay their second instalment on 1950 property taxes and still avoid a penalty.

George Drew Arrives Today

Progressive Conservative national leader, George Drew, M.P., will arrive in Edmonton from Calgary on an informal visit late today.

Mr. Drew attended the Calgary Stampede.

He fulfilled a luncheon engagement in Red Deer last night, leaving for Wetaskiwin.

Saturday, Mr. Drew will make a tour of the city and district. He plans to attend the Exhibition on Monday.

No plans have been made for any definite engagements while here, party leaders said.

Visiting U.S. Pilgrims Led By Ex-City Rector

A party of 10 Chicago Roman Catholics making a 16-day pilgrimage arrived in Edmonton from Vancouver, B.C., last night.

Supervising the pilgrimage is Bishop C. L. Nelligan, apostolic director of the Confederation of Pilgrims and former rector of St. Joseph's Cathedral, Edmonton.

The principal Roman Catholic chaplain of the Canadian army in the last war, he is now teaching at Assumption college, Winnipeg.

The pilgrims have visited San Capistrano mission, San Francisco; St. Gabriel Mission and Old San Juan, Los Angeles; and the Spanish Mission, also in California.

This morning Bishop Nelligan conducted mass at St. Joseph's Cathedral and tonight they will be guests of Roman Catholic clergy at the Macdonald Hotel.

They expect to be back in Chicago Sunday.

Dangerous Driving Brings $40 Fine

Dangerous driving early today cost George Guday $40 when he pleaded guilty to the charge in police court.

According to evidence, Guday hit a parked truck, knocked it onto the sidewalk at 4001 avenue and 96 St., and parked it a distance of 100 feet. Guday was driving south on 96 St. at about 2:30 a.m.

Accused claimed he was blinded by lights of an oncoming vehicle.

Sticker Drive Report Soon

Final report on the recent Alberta Safety Council sponsored safety campaign will be known Saturday.

The campaign, directed at examination of safety equipment on every car in Alberta, ended in voluntary phase on June 1, after a two weeks extension from original closing date of May 15. From then on, all motorists without stickers have been required by police to get them.

At that time safety officials estimated 90 per cent of the province's vehicles had passed safety equipment tests and had been issued the official safety stickers.

Chief Constable Reg Jennings said that police here were maintaining the customary year-round check of safety equipment and had completed the step-by-step campaign.

Howard Stutchbury, managing director of the Alberta Safety Council said today a final report would be available when returns from other safety councils in the province had been received.

Special Trolley Service Planned For Fair Week

Special service on all ETS lines has been arranged for fair week.

Patrons wishing to get to the fair should take the trolley across the High Level Bridge, east on Jasper, north on 97 street and east on 100 street.

Main gate patrons should take trolley coaches marked route 5.

Converser for the fashion parade was Mrs. N. Ewasuk, 10041 Saskatchewan Drive.

But the show really belonged to the Hutzuls, the Yavorachynas, the Polianinas, and the other peoples of the Ukraine—not to the moderns at all.

And mostly it belonged to the Hutzuls. Superimposed on modern dress, the butterfly beauty of the work designed by the happy folk from the highlands of the Ukraine was the hit of the parade.

The fashion conveyor called the Hutzul design "musical colors."

They came, she said, from a gay race which stole the reds, oranges and greens from their surroundings, took the recurring patterns from the life of their mountains, and made what embroidery "an emotion," not just fancy needlework.

And she said, there probably was a sociological significance to the fashion show itself.

Federal Pressure At Airport Cited

Airport Manager Claims Big Stick Wielded Over Addition

The dominion government is threatening Edmonton with the big stick, in the opinion of airport manager James Bell. And he wants the city to fight back.

Issue of contention is the new $50,000 addition to the airport administration building which will provide new accommodation for the federal customs and immigration department.

"The dominion government has threatened to cut out Edmonton as a port of entry unless we pay the cost of this building and provide accommodation rent free," he said.

SUPPORTS RESOLUTION

He strongly supported a city council resolution passed Monday night to protest the matter.

"This should be taken up before the cabinet," said Mr. Bell. "There's no use feeling around with some deputy minister."

He pointed out the matter goes back as far as the British North America Act and that legislation passed in the early years of the century required transportation companies to provide customs and immigration accommodation.

"We're not a transportation company but they still want us to pay for this," he said.

"Railroads and steamship lines can afford that sort of thing. We can't."

THINKING BLAMED

Incompetency in government thinking was claimed by the manager.

"It would be just as logical for them to require border towns such as Coquit to provide customs and immigration accommodation," he said.

"A bus today is essentially the same thing as an airliner."

He said the city had decided to build the new addition and argue about paying for it afterward, to prevent any move which would deprive Edmonton of international airline traffic.

Cost of customs officers in the new wing will be about $30,000.

All Should Be In It

There is a great deal of justice in the complaint now current throughout the United States that the Americans should not be left to fight the battles of the United Nations against Russian imperialism alone. The reason for this complaint is just as simple as that the United States requires a great volume of assistance to eventually quell the disturbance in Korea and stem the advance of Russian communism but that the imperialistic ambitions of Russia will be more readily set back if Russia is made to realize that all the democratic world is in arms against those ambitions.

Russia must be made to see that her puppets are facing, not a few American soldiers marching under the banner of the UN, but all the forces of all the world marching under the flag of world freedom.

To speak plainly, there are those in Canada, as in Europe, who recall with some resentment how the United States hesitated from 1914 to 1917 when the fate of the world was in the balance and how they hesitated again from 1939 to 1941 when world freedom was even more seriously threatened.

That resentment should play no part in present policies. It would be suicidal to permit it to do so.

This is no time for any petty attitudes to even scores or to throw the whole burden on the shoulders of the Americans as the Americans permitted it to fall on the shoulders of the British in 1940.

Indeed, knowing that the slowness of the Americans to enter the First and Second World Wars prolonged those struggles and created greater world hazards, the rest of the democracies should be all the more eager that such an error be not repeated on their own part.

Winston Churchill has said in all gravity that the countries of the world will be turned back in Korea, the whole world will be aflame.

General Charles de Gaulle has affirmed his opinion that imperialistic Russia is preparing for war.

State Secretary Dean Acheson has emphasized the growing seriousness of the situation.

These things are not said to cause panic. They are not said to frighten the democracies into action.

But they do make very clear a fact that everyone must face, that unless the democracies present a strong united front in Korea, the communist enemy will extend his aggressions.

There is a good chance that the struggle can be confined to Korea if Russia realizes that the democratic nations are standing together against this experimental foe.

But if the Russians are led to believe that the Americans are to carry the burden alone, there is an obvious chance that they may try their luck at achieving world conquest.

The war was emboldened to march against Europe because he was assured that the United States would not fight and that the British dominions would not support the German cause.

It would be a great pity if the holding back of the democracies led Stalin into a similar error of judgment.

Deep Contentment Found On Ranch

(Columnist Jack Scott is on a cross-Canada tour with his family in automobile and trailer—EDITOR.)

Y-Cross Ranch, High River, Alta.—Several times in the last couple of days, talking with Joe through every line of business friends of mine in the city in whose hedge of success he is the sundriest of sons. Joe seems to have found success and a deep contentment, rarely wedded in the city, and found it in the company of cattle. Sort of makes you wonder if the family brain work of the big town and its path to a milk-and-crackers diet, it would be a powerful built man of 44 with sloping shoulders, a long nose, a big, bearded face darkened by sun and wind.

But the outstanding feature of Joe Bews is a contentment that you find only in strong men. A rancher friend of his said to me, "Joe is the slowest doggone guy you will ever meet" and he was a hundred percent right.

He speaks in a voice as modulated as any I heard in the West. Welsh Rhonda Valley, where everyone has his head slightly cocked to hear the other fellow. If there were more Joe Bews in the world we'd need fewer guns.

I suspect that such a serene character comes in part from environment. The rancher's life demands a good deal of patience, long hours alone on a horse, and a steady, steady, steady. That just naturally makes any man a little more content. What Joe Bews is a shame to see it exclusively on cattle.

With Cattle
The story of Joe's life is all roped up with cattle. In his younger days when he was a cowboy, he was a cowboy, wild oats was the best-dressed cowboy three years in a row at the High River stampede. He met his vicious wife, Josephine, and cattle played cupid. The family lived on the route when he drove his beef from the foothills into town. The procedure was to stop at the farm for coffee and then was how the romance began.

His most ambitious holiday was a 1800-mile trip to the coast on an expedition on which he was accompanied by a train load of beef and horses. But here you learn. There's a lot to be said for the rancher. He's a man who wants my kids to grow up on the ranch. There's a lot to be said for the rancher. He's a man who wants my kids to grow up on the ranch. ## Is Edmonton Pushed Around?

The Canadian department of customs seems to have adopted an extraordinary attitude towards Edmonton when the heels of an announcement that the Edmonton airport will be closed as a port of customs entry unless Edmonton pays the cost of customs inspection.

The new order, The Bulletin is informed, prohibits customs officers from making their inspections of bonded cars in north Edmonton, the west end and the south side.

Shippers spotted for delivery at private sidings to these three sections have been taken downtown for customs inspection, says the new order.

It is obvious that this regulation will occasion serious delay in the delivery of goods in this city. It will add materially to the costs of merchandising and manufacturing.

Surely the customs department here is not so understaffed that everything must be brought into a centralized spot for its convenience.

And surely the time of customs inspection is not worth more than the lost tax by merchants through this senseless juggling around.

Government departments exist to serve the public, not to inconvenience the public. But there is precious little service in this new arrogant attitude adopted by the customs department.

This new order is objectionable in the further sense that it does not seem to apply to other Canadian centres with a similar geographical position.

It does not apply in Calgary, nor in Moose Jaw, nor Toronto.

The fact that Edmonton appears to be singled out for this inconvenience, however, gives rise to the suspicion that somebody in a position of authority in the customs department is intent upon pushing this city around.

The Chamber of Commerce is investigating this strange order.

The way to think that one of the first points to be determined is whether the federal cabinet is aware of this discrimination or whether some overzealous official is starting his authority at Edmonton's expense.

of their own choosing, with the free democratic process.

Present Russian strategy is one of relentless infiltration and expansion on all fronts, now in Asia, then Africa, then South America until the strongest remaining free countries are strangled economically and geographically and finally militarily.

It is clear then that a military war with Russia is inevitable unless the police state is able to gain its objective of global control without full scale war.

Thus if we wish to hold to our freedom and if we wish to avoid war our task is now plain.

We must maintain our military forces in a constant and mighty state of preparedness so that the enemy will hesitate to attack directly.

We must resist Russian expansion on every front, with every means available, for every square foot of ground and every human being must be defended.

Laying a Cultural Foundation

Les Hepper, the Pope Orchestra and the Recreation Commission deserve warm commendation for the children's concert Wednesday afternoon.

Mr. Hepper and various orchestra members effectively introduced each musical instrument in turn—to everyone's delight, including the player—and then demonstrated its use in a classical number.

Musical lessons like this will go far to acquaint children with the best in music and to build up their appreciation for it.

He's Been Opposed to Crime Ever Since Hectic Twenties

The U.S. Senate's inquiry into crime (which it opposes) is bringing back a grim picture of the series which I had hoped was long ago to rest. Mostly involving blood (and father-son) and arms and legs (my own).

The general idea seems to be that the crime gangster who needed my beer 20 years in Chicago still is in business at the same old stand. Only now their henchmen are legal and they have branched out into other fields.

OTTHMAN, Chicago, says, "I remember well a party at which Senator Al. Belmont was host. I was afraid I was thoroughly impressed by the fact that I was invited, but you'll have to put that down to my youth."

Imports Hit Record High Peak In May

OTTAWA, July 14.—(C.P.)—Canada's imports hit an all-time monthly peak in May, and at the same time exports to the United States touched a new record.

The high of $177,000,000 in imports to the U.S. resulted in Canada's adverse trade balance with that country being pushed to $13,000,000 for the month, compared with last year's May deficit of $6,000,000 and $22,000,000 for April.

The monthly trade deficit in several directions. The imports both from the United States and the United Kingdom set new marks along with those of all foreign groups of countries and all commonwealth groups except Oceania.

The grand total of imports was $206,200,000, compared with $202,000,000 in April and $203,500,000 in May of 1949.

$600,000 ADVERSE

Total exports for the month were $200,000, leaving an adverse balance of $600,000 for the month, against $12,000,000 in the preceding month and $22,000,000 in the month of $25,100,000 in May 1949.

For the five months up to the end of May, total value of imports was $1,170,000,000, slightly up from the $1,139,000,000 of the same period of 1949.

Domestic exports were valued at $1,144,000,000, compared with $1,180,000,000 and foreign exports were $1,900,000,000 with $1,150,000,000.

That left, for the first five months, an adverse balance of $13,000,000 against a credit balance of $22,000,000 in the same period last year.

President Warns Against Hoarding

WASHINGTON, July 14.—(AP)—President Truman yesterday called for calm on the home front, saying food rationing will not be necessary and hoarding is foolish.

He told his press conference party jumps can be blamed at least partly on profiteering.

JACOBY ON Canasta

By OSWALD JACOBY

"Please answer a question on 'penalty cards,' requests a Georgia reader. 'My partner, mated to 80 points instead of the required 90, and didn't see his mistake until the cards were already exposed. She put down one deuce, three eights, and three nines. After seeing her mistake and realizing that she had overplayed, she discarded one of the eights that she had put down.

"When my turn came, I happened that I had three similar cards. I put down three eights with a deuce and three nines. I thought she had put them all there at one play."

"Please advise just what my partner should do when her next turn comes. I interpreted the rules to mean that she would not be compelled to discard any further from the table and also that her cards exposed on the table could be added to my meld. Is this true or false?"

"If my partner supposed to take up her cards and put them back into her hand? Or does she add them to my meld? If she is permitted to add them, what method should she use? May she put only one card on my meld at a time, or may she put them all there at one play?"

This is a subject that confuses a great many players. The best way to remember what you can do and what you can't do with penalty cards is to imagine that they're all in your hand instead of being put up on the table. Of course, that's just imagination; you can't actually pick them up and put them back in your hand.

Now, what can you do with penalty cards that are in your hand? Well, when your turn comes, you may add one or more cards from your partner's melds. You are allowed to add as few or as many as you like. The same is true of your own penalty cards. You may add one or more to your partner's meld.

To be specific, in the case under discussion the player could add all of her penalty cards (two eights, three nines, and one deuce) to her partner's meld. If, for some reason, she did not add all of those cards, the rest would still remain as penalty cards and would have to be discarded until they were all either properly melded or discarded.

Q—When you are dealt to one card and the top card of the discard pile is one that matches one of your melds, is it permissible to take the pack?

A—Yes—provided that the pack consists of more than one card. When you have only one card left, you are not allowed to take a one-card discard pile, but you are allowed to take a pile of two or more cards. However, if the pack is frozen, you can never pick it up with one card. You need a pair to take a card, a frozen pack, and a single card can never be enough.

Q—I drew the last card of the stock, and it happened to be a red three. Was I supposed to meld out three? In this situation you may meld just as many as you want of any other time. If you would at any time, you may do so and you will get the regular bonus of 100 points. If you do not meld all 100 points, you may meld what you want. You need a red three in this ever you like. However, in the situation (getting a red three as the last card of the stock), you do

Five Jet Fighter Squadrons Slated

1951 Expected To Be Biggest Development Year Since War

OTTAWA, July 14.—(CP)—Next year is earmarked as the biggest since the Second World War for development of Canadian air combat strength, the RCAF said today.

Roe's Latest Turbo-Jet Engine Tested

TORONTO, July 14.—(UPI)—The A. V. Roe Aircraft Company announced yesterday development of a turbo-jet engine described as the most powerful in the world. The engine will be ready for installation in the CF-100, Canada's top jet fighter.

Company officials said the engine, named the Orenda, was tested at Toronto's Malton airport yesterday afternoon in a specially-built Lancaster bomber.

The bomber itself was said to be the only one of its type in North America. Two Orenda turbo-jet engines were placed in the Lancaster on the outside positions, inside motors were Rolls-Royce Merlins.

ARTIC TESTS
The company said the Orenda-fitted Lancaster would make frequent tests during the next few weeks, including flights to northern bases for cold weather conditioning.

Spokenmen refused, however, to say when the Orenda would be installed in the CF-100. Fitted with the Orenda, the CF-100 might easily become the world's most powerful fighter plane, an official predicted.

Some Yanks Said Protesting Korean Stand

WASHINGTON, July 14.—(AP)—The Communist-controlled North Korean radio said yesterday American prisoners carried placards in a demonstration in captured Seoul denouncing American intervention in Korea.

A broadcast recorded by U.S. government monitors said the demonstration took place Monday. Nothing in the broadcast indicated whether the protesters took part in the reported demonstration voluntarily or were forced to do so.

Earlier broadcasts said American prisoners were paraded through the streets of Pyongyang, North Korean capital.

AN UPPER BERTH in an auto has been developed by two Jasper Place residents, Fred Smith, 15813-100A avenue; Stan Lowe, 15308 Stony Plain Road. Lowe demonstrates the berth, made of steel rods and a canvas. Legs of the berth rest on front and back seats. Bed can be assembled in a minute, they claim, and can be stored in golf bag.

Britons Warned Against Effects Of Hypnotism

LONDON, July 14.—(CP)—Next time somebody asks you to stooge for a hypnotist, don't do it. That was the word in Britain yesterday. Two separate organizations united in protest against feats of hypnosis performed at vaudeville theatres.

In Sheffield, an accident-prevention group said that stage performances sometimes have strange results. One clerk who volunteered was told he would fall asleep on the stage when the orchestra played "So Tired."

He did, but the catch was, the field experts said, that next day one of his colleagues whistled the same tune. Presently the clerk was off in another trance. In London, the British Society of Medical Hypnotists presented a document to the health ministry. In it the society argued that persons hypnotized in theatres have suffered "severe mental harm."

The society, whose members are all qualified doctors, warned of a double danger — persons in the audience may be affected as well as those on the stage. Two cases of persons who had to take treatment after attending performances are described in the current issue of the British Journal of Medical Hypnotism.

In one case, a girl who was made to cry on the stage subsequently suffered long bouts of deep depression and weeping. The second case described a girl who suffered nervous trouble two weeks after attending, but not actively participating in, a hypnotic performance.

A ministry of health spokesman said the matter didn't seem of sufficient importance to warrant an act of parliament.

Stan Moher

Sports Editor

(Bulletin sports editor is looking up the sun in some faraway place these times. And getting concerned today for the holidaying Moher is Robert Leland, a former sports writer on the Bulletin staff who feels sorry for score-averse pitchers).

Secrets Sold to Spaldings

In its customary painting style, Time magazine is excited (Time July 10) about the high scoring in big league baseball.

Nine pitchers who gave up 21 walks, 34 hits and 36 runs in a Boston Red Sox-Philadelphia Athletics game started Time rewriters into quoting Coach Bill Dickey as saying:

"It's (all these runs) making a joke of the game."
A player is reported to have said:
"The atom bomb secrets were sold to Spaldings, not to the Russians."

Big league baseball is becoming a farcical sport. For years it refused to yield to the pressure of promoters who were concerned only with making money.

Platinum-haired Judge Landis managed to protect the grand old game from the mercenary wolves who endeavored to sacrifice the true game of baseball to please the undisciplined tastes of the hit-and-run loving fans of this hopped up world of ours.

Golf courses shortened the holes, put the tees up front and the cups in the easy spots on the greens so that the Hognas and the Sheads et al could slash old man par to bloody ribbons. The crowd never worried how many yards the golfers shot, just how many strokes.

Rabbit Balls and Synthetic Horners

American football, just to please the fans and to make money, even at the expense of college athletes, circled up the game so much that now it is merely a sideshow of bands, college cheer sections, acrobats and complete teams changing on or off the field, depending whether they are on the offensive or defensive.

Horse racing has become another sideshow with swans swimming in the lush, flowered infield while they snuff their noses in disdain at the horsey whiffs which come from shed row.

Seven or eight times a day (twelve in Mexico) somebody condescends to have horses run, otherwise it is a sideshow of racing celebrities, money making concessions, cocktail bars and of course, betting booths.

And so it has gone all through sport. Baseball was the last to be mesmerized by the promoters' money making wand.

First, out on the western shores of the USA where the Pacific Coast league was losing money in most cities, they introduced the rabbit ball, made by Wilson Sporting Goods. Ground balls that once went for ordinary infield outs started to scamper through the infield for baselines.

Homeruns started to mount up. Not only did the crowds, which started to increase, get more hits and runs for their money, but big league clubs looking for players were fooled by artificial batting averages and paid inflated sums for their coast products.

And the rabbit ball wasn't good enough.
The umpires in the coast league decided not to call the corners for the pitchers anymore, so that a strike wasn't between the shoulders and the knees anymore, it was well under the letters and above the knees.

Two O'Clock Throwers Today

There was only one result. A pitcher who didn't have enough stuff to throw the ball past the hitters took an early shower.

He couldn't count on sneaking control pitches over the corners, or high and low. He had to throw them by the batteries.

First move the major leagues made to follow the coast league and change the game to please the run loving fans was on behalf of Babe Ruth when Yankee stadium was shortened in right field so he would get more home runs.

Then Spalding, to withstand the competition of Wilson, made his baseball more lively.

In the last few years the umpiring has become tougher as did the coast league years ago so that nowadays pitchers are just throwers. They march in and out of ball games like bowlers in cricket matches and suffer almost the same number of runs scored against them.

They say the customer is always right so if it is runs he wants perhaps he should get it. However, the day is almost here when the art of pitching is finished.

The chuckers are getting to be nothing but two o'clock throwers, which in baseball language means batting practice pitchers.

And they will continue to be throwers until the umpires call the corners or the pitchers get back the dead ball or such legendarily as the spit ball.

Eskimos play Purdy 99 in Renfrew Park tonight, weather permitting.

Bill Durnan Packs Up Great Puck Career

MONTREAL, July 14. — (CP) — Bill Durnan, one of the greatest goalkeepers in hockey history, has decided to hang up his pads after seven National Hockey League seasons.

The big, rugged Montreal Canadiens player, six times Vezina trophy winner as the league's best goalie, Wednesday walked into the office of Frank Selke, Canadiens manager, and said: "This is it."

"I could never stand another season," the 36-year-old Toronto native said. "My nerves are all shot and I know it."

Succeeding Durnan in the Canadiens next season will be 22-year-old Gerry McNeil, called up from Cincinnati last night by the American Hockey League during Stanley Cup play last year.

At that time, Durnan, 31, and untested, asked to be replaced.

Yesterday, Selke said the job as Canadiens netminder is all McNeil's. "Anyone who thinks he can get it away from him will have to do it fighting the hard way," he said.

First news of Durnan's retirement came last February when he said: "If there's a decent business opportunity I am certain to take it and leave hockey."

Shortly after he was seriously injured in a game at Chicago when he fell on a skate and nearly lost his sight. He returned to play for the remainder of the season until the Cup playoffs.

Durnan came to the Canadiens in the 1934-35 season. Since then he has been named to the league's All-Star team six times. During his NHL career, Durnan played in 383 games and had 801 goals scored against him for an average of 2.08.

Bogus Bills Said Sold In Toronto

TORONTO, July 14. — (CP) — The Globe and Mail says today that counterfeit United States money is being sold on the street, regarded as one of the city's wickedest streets.

Hawk-Red Wing Bartering Establishes NHL Record

DETROIT, July 14. — (CP) — The biggest trade in the history of the National Hockey League was disclosed yesterday with word that Detroit Red Wings had swapped five of their players for four from Chicago Black Hawks.

Detroit champions of the NHL and winners of the Stanley Cup last season, turned over to the Hawks goalie Harry Lumley, defencemen Jack Stewart and Al Bede, left winger Peter Albarado, and centre Don Morrison.

In exchange they got centre Melto Prystai, left winger Gary Slew, defencemen Bob Goldham and goalie Jim Henry.

The deal should strengthen Detroit's offensive power and improve Chicago's defence.

FRANK ALVARO ADVANCES Junior Tennis Underway in Calgary

CALGARY, July 14. — (CP) — Fifteen matches were run off in the Alberta Junior Tennis Championships which opened here yesterday.

Six matches were played in the junior men's singles event. Second-seeded Frank Oliver of Edmonton advanced by default over H. Rayman. Defending champion Ken Lawson was leading in a first round match with Dave Campbell 6-3, 4-0 when rain halted play. This match will be completed today.

Don Anderson easily downed D. McGee 6-1, 6-0 to advance to the quarter-finals and Dick Loney of B. Shortt 6-2, 6-3.

Winning-born Terry Sawchuk, star goalie for the Wings in the diabolical farm club, has been selected to the Hawks' camp to move up into regular NHL competition. Many hockey experts consider him a good or better than Lumley, Henry, who is 30 and also from Winnipeg, was let out to the Hawks' Kansas City farm last season. He likely will be farmed out by Detroit.

Guy Stewart and Goldham both went to Chicago from Toronto in November, 1947, in the biggest NHL swap up to then. The Leafs obtained star forward Max Bentley and Cy Thomas of Edmonton in that seven-player deal.

Stewart, of Fort William, Ont., has scored 12 goals in six seasons of big league play. Last year he got to 14 in 31 games with Chicago's scores.

Jack Stewart, 35-year-old veteran of nearly 10 years of major league play, has been a stand-out in Detroit's defence for as long as most fans can remember.

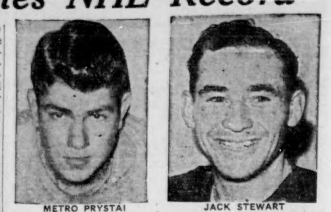

Adams said that in releasing him he took into consideration a specific request for Eddie Goodfellow, newly-named Chicago coach. Goodfellow said he planned to give Jack Stewart the status of an assistant coach.

DeWabur, a native of Goodrich, Ont., and Morrison, both members of Detroit's minor league organization, will be given an opportunity to step into major league competition. Morrison was born in Saskatoon.

H-Bomb Outlawing Is Now Or Never

By George E. Reedy, Jr.

WASHINGTON, July 14.—(UP)—The Congressional Atomic Energy Committee said today that the world may be facing its last chance to outlaw hydrogen weapons that could destroy a city the size of Chicago in a single, fiery burst.

In the most comprehensive report yet issued on the H-bomb, the committee issued dramatic statement of confidence that the dreaded weapon will be produced.

The report outlined the aw-some possibilities of the weapon and warned that agreement on international controls could be far more difficult to achieve once it becomes a reality.

When that day comes, it said, the nations able to produce it will have a greater incentive to conceal a portion of their stockpiles while pretending to reveal them.

"It is easier never to do what is still undone, rather than to undo what has been done—an opportunity may now exist that will pass if and when the H-bomb becomes a reality," the report said.

TO TIMES GREATER.

The document was prepared last fall by the committee's technical staff for the information of the legislature. But chairman Henry

McMahon, D. Conn., released a technical facts of the hydrogen bomb.

Most of the report was taken up with a series of questions to which no answers were given, but sandwiched in between were broad hints of the scope of the nation's hydrogen bomb program. The report indicated that the aim is a hydrogen bomb so powerful it could destroy a city the size of Chicago and all of its suburbs.

The destruction would be wrought by a combination of fire and blast lasting 16 times as great as that at Hiroshima.

FIVE POWERS

Also outlined—for the first time in an official publication—were the five nations that have the capability to produce the bomb.

Seaway Building By U.S. Army Report Denied

OTTAWA, July 14.—(CP)—The external affairs department said yesterday there is no foundation for a report that the United States administration is planning to have U.S. army engineers go ahead with constructing of the St. Lawrence seaway as a defense measure.

The story is without foundation," the department said in a brief statement.

The statement was evoked by a copyist story in the Toronto Star saying the U.S. administration would sidestep congressional opposition by ordering the American half of the project to be built by the army.

Shortly before the department issued its statement, President Truman told a Washington press conference he had no intention of asking the army to take on the job.

Communist China Is Modernizing Laws Regarding Marriage

HONG KONG, (Reuters)—The Chinese central government has passed a new marriage law which, it is claimed, "breaks the fetters of age-old tradition."

"All antiquated regulations and customs which in the past forced women to marry without the consent of their own will and to live as slaves to their husbands and to be subject to the whims of their husbands are hereby abolished," the law states.

The new law provides that the age of marriage shall be 20 for men and 18 for women. It also provides that the consent of both parties is necessary for a valid marriage.

The law also provides that the husband and wife are equal in all respects. It also provides that the husband and wife are to be regarded as equals in the home.

Northern Alberta Wildcat Announced

The Bear Oil organization has announced another wildcat in northern Alberta. The new oil-seeker will be Bear Drift No. 1, along the southern edge of Lesser Slave Lake about one-third of the way from its western end. # War Will Stimulate Need For Alberta's Oil Production

By C. V. Myers
Bulletin Oil Editor

As the war situation worsens, Alberta oil stocks continue to fall with the king of markets, the New York Exchange. Just the thing the oil market has failed to produce any gains among Alberta oil men.

A survey of the situation in the oil market shows that the same picture as before. There has been no curtailment of drilling or exploration programs, even as the war situation has worsened.

Wildcat wells are at a record peak, but probably no higher, war or no war.

The reason for this is that the oil men are not sure of the future. They are waiting for the oil market to return to the bull market for several months.

Many oil men think that a new war developed drilling would be stepped up to fever heat and then the government would encourage it.

Edmonton North Oil Co. is now drilling below 3,600 at their No. 1 well, located 2 miles northeast of the city of Edmonton and expect to spud in their first Ludue well this week. The Ludue well is a direct offset to producing well.
